IN HARDING'S HANDS

Bishop William F. Anderson
Presents Senator With Memorandum.

Marion, O., Dec. 14.—The return of Shantung to China by Japan was named as one of three conditions on which the entry of America into the league of nations should be based, in a memorandum presented to Senator Harding today by Bishop William F. Anderson of Cincinnati.

Bishop Anderson also declared that nations which cannot afford membership in the league because of financial obligations, should be allowed one delegate at each meeting of the league assembly. Membership in the league, he insisted, should be open to all nations desiring to participate in the interests of world peace.

His remaining condition stipulated that the United States should not be bound by any articles of the league covenant to participate in war or engage her military forces except by act of congress.

Dr. Anderson, who is Methodist Episcopal bishop of Ohio, Indiana and Michigan, urged that the United States enter the league on those terms. He declared after talking with Senator Harding, that he had complete confidence that a solution satisfactory to the nation and calculated to protect every American interest would be reached.

Definite conclusions, it is stated, are gradually forming themselves before the president-elect as the result of the conferences on international affairs. It is regarded as probable that his deliberations will have advanced sufficiently by January 1 to permit of some statement regarding the permanent policy of his administration.

Extreme significance is attached to the statement, issued by Col. George Harvey, outlining the proposal for an association of nations. Those nations, he proposed, should be pledged for all time never to engage in offensive warfare until the question had been voted on and approved by the people.

Colonel Harvey is believed to be thoroughly in touch with the president-elect's views and desires in connection with the present international situation. Senator Harding undoubtedly was apprised of the contents of the Harvey statement which is believed by many leaders here to reflect with considerable accuracy Senator Harding's view as developed up to this time.

The Harvey declaration came close on the heels of the recommendation of Elihu Root for an international court made operative by arbitration treaties to adjudicate controversies among nations.

Governor Sprout of Pennsylvania, and W. W. Atterbury, vice-president of the Pennsylvania railroad conferred with Senator Harding today. Senator New is scheduled to arrive Friday with Will H. Hays and W. J. Bryan and William H. Taft is tentatively expected Dec. 24.

OPPOSITION VOICED TO REAPPRAISMENT
BY OHIO FARMERS

Columbus, O., Dec. 14.—Ohio farmers, through L. J. Taber, master of the Ohio Grange and C. A. Dyer, legislative agent for the Ohio Farm Bureau Federation, have lodged a protest against the decree of the state tax commission providing for reappraisal of real estate in 61 counties. The commission promised to give the protest due consideration.

It is claimed that the data on which the order of the tax commission was issued has no value in view of the deflation now in progress and that no intelligent revaluation can be made in the near future on account of price conditions.

DROP HUNT FOR ALLEGED SLAYER

Fort Worth, Tex., Dec. 14.—Search for Clara Smith Hamon, charged with the murder of Jake L. Hamon, Oklahoma "empire builder," was dropped here today when authorities declared the woman "had never intended coming here." Newspapers held the same belief.

Authorities hold the theory that the fugitive woman has either "escaped into Mexico or else is being 'hidden' by friends of the dead oil king until after prosecutor Russell B. Brown, of Ardmore, goes out of office Jan. 1.

NEW MACHINE GUN PROVES WONDER

The submachine gun, a remarkable rifle invented by Brigadier General John T. Thompson, U. S. A., retired, was successfully demonstrated at Deal, N. J., recently. The wonderful new weapon fired fifty shots in less than two seconds, the greatest rapidity of fire ever attained by any gun in the world. General Thompson, inventor of the gun, was Director of Arsenals in charge of the production of small arms for the U. S. Army during the war. The rifle, which fires a .45 calibre bullet, has been adopted for riot duty by police and constabulary throughout the country. The illustration shows the new gun and its inventor, Brigadier General John T. Thompson.

William Howard Taft May Be Given Place On Bench—
Hughes' Name Also Mentioned As Possibility.

Washington, Dec. 14.—It is regarded as very probable in Washington that President-elect Warren G. Harding is going to be confronted with the task of filling three, possibly four vacancies on the bench of the United States supreme court before his administration is very old.

Four sitting members of the court including the chief justice are eligible for retirement and, if the normal course of events is followed out, their places will be filled by the incoming Harding administration. Those eligible for retirement are Chief Justice

NEW YORK POLICE

Declares She Was Treated
"Like a Dog" by the Commissioner.

New York, Dec. 14.—Mrs. Ellen A. O'Grady, Deputy Police Commissioner of New York City, resigned, asserting that she had been hampered in her work and could not remain in her place and retain her self-respect. Her action followed attacks on the efficiency of the department made by several newspapers.

Mrs. O'Grady, who said she had handed Police Commissioner Richard Enright her badge and announced she was "leaving," charged that she had been "treated like a dog," by the Commissioner since January, 1919, when she and her women detectives, "tried to arrest men in his office for outrageous treatment to girls."

FEAR ABILITY OF
TREASURY TO MEET
WAR DEBTS OF U. S.

Believe Annual Tax Levy
May Not Be Sufficient.

Washington, Dec. 14.—Concern of congressional leaders as to ability of the treasury to meet the $7,500,000,000 war debts maturing within the next two and a half years was indicated by Chairman Fordney of the ways and means committee.

He frankly expressed doubt as to whether the estimate of a $4,000,000,000 annual tax levy would be sufficient to meet the requirements of the government over the period of maturing treasury certificates and Victory notes. As a solution, he advocated refunding into long-term bonds the certificates now totalling $2,500,000,000 as well as of the first issue of war saving stamps and the Victory net issue.

Adoption of such a solution, Mr. Fordney declared, probably would enable a reduction of taxes below Secretary Houston's estimate of $4,000,000,000. It also, he said, would permit a tax levy of several years sufficient only to cover current fiscal expenses of the government and interest on the public debt and sinking fund operations.

APPEAL TO AMERICA

Message Sent To This Country
For Intervention
In Ireland.

London, Dec. 14.—(1:30 p. m.)—Fresh disorders broke out at Cork today accompanied by shooting, according to information just received from that city. It is reported that there were some casualties.

Dublin, Dec. 14.—A detachment of black and tan policemen was bombed by three civilians near Ballsbridge post office today. The attackers fled in a motor car pursued by policemen in a military lorry and escaped.

London, Dec. 14.—The black and tan police, who were accused in Cork of setting fire to the city, were withdrawn from Cork during the night, said a dispatch today to the Daily News. It added that the British military authorities strongly censured the black and tans for their conduct in Cork. Martial law in Cork is being administered by English troops.

Lord Mayor O'Callaghan of Cork, and two Sinn Fein members of parliament from Cork county, J. J. Walsh and L. Roiste, have united in an appeal for American intervention in Ireland, according to a Cork dispatch.

A message was sent to the American ambassadors in various European countries saying:

"For the past week the people of Cork have been held up in the streets and robbed and shops have been looted. Citizens were publicly whipped and shot and in many cases burned alive. The principal business quarter of the city was bombed and destroyed by armed forces of the crown. In the name of humanity the tortured people are seeking protection from savage tyranny and urged immediate intervention by your government."

CHURCH IS LOOTED

Member Discovers Theft
and Gives Alarm; No Clue
To Identity.

New York, Dec. 14.—Pearls and diamonds said to be worth from $10,000 to $100,000 were stolen from a golden vessel in the Catholic Church of St. Vincent Ferrer here within the last day or two by thieves, who escaped without having left a trace as to their identity or as to the exact time of the robbery.

A lay brother entering the church discovered the disorder wrought by the burglars and gave the alarm. The value of jewels and money stolen from the church could not be learned because of the absence from the city of Father Hoffman, the pastor.

SENATOR CHARGES COAL OPERATORS WITH RESPONSIBILITY FOR BUILDING SHORTAGE

Profiteering in Coal Caused Housing Shortage Declares
Senator Capper In Senate Committee Report.

Washington, Dec. 14.—Profiteering in coal has been largely responsible for the serious building and housing shortage from which the American people are suffering, it was stated in a preliminary report of the senate committee on reconstruction and production submitted to the senate today by Senator Calder, Republican, of New York, its chairman.

REFUSES FURTHER DELAY TO PACKERS

Washington, Dec. 14.—Refusing a request for further delay in the litigation involving the plans by which the large packers proposed to dispose of their unrelated industries including the stockyards, Justice Stafford of the supreme court of the District of Columbia, today set December 21 for argument in the matter. The court held that too many postponements had already been granted. It is expected that the government will press its motion that the court appoint trustees to take over the interests of the packing concerns and dispose of them.

CHARGES AGAINST U.S.
MARINES ARE DENIED

Administration in Haiti Governed By Justice Declares
Rear Admiral Harry S. Knapp To Secretary Daniels.

Washington, Dec. 14.—Charges that American marines in Haiti have been guilty of indiscriminate killing of men, women and children are absolutely unfounded, according to the report of Rear Admiral Harry S. Knapp, to Secretary of the Navy Daniels today. Though admitting that the marines may have made mistakes, Admiral Knapp warmly defended their administration of justice and asserted that except for a negligible percentage of malcontents, the population of Haiti welcome their presence in the island.

Admiral Knapp believes the Haitians would rapidly sink back into banditry and anarchy if the United States forces were withdrawn. At least a generation must pass he asserted, before Haiti can produce sufficient men of high enough standards to provide personnel for an honest administration and a background of honest population for its support.

It is entirely possible that 5,000 Haitians have been killed since American occupation in 1915, the Admiral stated, but he denied emphatically that women and children had been killed by Americans and insisted that those shot were encois or bandits.

Intermittent fighting with these lawless bands culminated some months ago and now good order prevails practically throughout the island. Charges that strangulation and flogging were resorted to are absolutely denied.

The admiral admitted that the "corvee" system of enforced labor on roads has been employed under American occupation and pointed out that such service is not only legal in Haiti but that similar laws exist or have existed in the United States.

In applying the system, the gendarmerie were acting under the order of the president of Haiti he said.

Speaking of accusations that murders and tortures had been committed, the admiral said there were unquestionably cases of abuse of power on the part of junior officers of the gendarmerie and of enlisted men. Where such cases became known he said the offenders were punished.

RELIEF TO FARMERS
BILL PASSES SENATE;
NOW BEFORE HOUSE

Revival of War Finance Corporation to Give Farmers Help.

Washington, December 14.—The senate late Monday passed the agriculture committee resolution directing the revival of the war finance corporation as a measure of affording relief to farmers.

The second section of the resolution, which is introduction of liberal credits to farmers by the federal reserve system, was amended to make the desirability of such a course only an expression of opinion of the Congress.

The amendment making the change in the section of the resolution relating to the federal reserve system was proposed by Senator Norris, Republican, Nebraska, and was accepted by a vote of 47 to 16.

To Aid All Exports
Another change made in the resolution on suggestion of Senator Smith, Democrat, Georgia, broadened the duties of the finance corporation to include financing of exportation of products other than those produced on the farm.

Final action on the resolution was without a record vote. The measure now goes to the house where a number of similar farmer relief measures are pending.

Annual Convention Of Ohio
State Grange Opens
In Cleveland.

Cleveland, Dec. 14.—Co-operative marketing of farm products, thus reducing the margin between the sum received by the farmer and that paid by the consumer, will be one of the principal matters to be decided at the annual convention of the Ohio State Grange, patrons of husbandry, which opens here this morning.

"A better rural organization is the principal task of this convention," said L. J. Taber, state master. "We are going to build up the collective life of Ohio farmers. Collecting marketing, taxation, road building, education and legislation will be considered."

With the exception of a public reception tonight at Grays Armory all sessions will be secret. Between 2,500 and 3,000 delegates and visitors are expected.

FOUR ARE KILLED IN PLANE CRASH

London, Dec. 14.—Four persons were killed near Cricklewood today when a huge Handley Page airplane, carrying mails between London and Paris, crashed in a thick haze.

The airplane which was carrying eight passengers as well as mails, struck a tree and then crashed into a house, which was demolished. The wreckage caught fire. The airplane had just started for Paris.

The catastrophe occurred at Golders Green, near the Cricklewood aerodrome.

HELP BY DRYS

Increased Appropriation for Enforcement
Desired.

PROGRAM APPROVED

Trustees of Ohio Anti-Saloon League Meet In Columbus.

Columbus, O., Dec.—Congress will be asked to increase the appropriation for enforcement of national prohibition, and pass laws prohibiting American citizens from trafficking in liquor in American consular districts in foreign nations, defining misconduct of federal officials, and making violations of the law a forfeiture of office.

This legislative program was approved at the annual session of the trustees of the Ohio anti-saloon league here.

The trustees agreed that, during the coming year, the Ohio anti-saloon league should labor to perfect laws and make state prohibition 100 per cent effective; sustain and organize dry sentiment and marshal its back of enforcement officials; lend assistance to federal, state and local officials; encourage officers who are zealous and call to account the shirkers; combat wet propaganda, which "is trying to make people believe the dry policy is detrimental," and aid in promoting the cause of world wide prohibition.

Election of officers resulted as follows: President Dr. J. Knox Montgomery, president of Muskingum college; vice president, George D. Selby, Portsmouth; superintendent, J. A. White, Columbus; Headquarters committee, Rev. Dr. A. M. Courtney, Westerville; C. L. Dickey, Columbus; Rev. Dr. T. H. Campbell, Columbus; David Teachout, Cleveland and Rev. Mr. Warren, Painesville.

Sessions of the state conference of dry leaders here today and tonight are to be addressed by national prohibition Commissioner J. E. Kramer, Congressman Andrew J. Volstead, author of the federal prohibition act; Attorney Wayne B. Wheeler, general counsel for the anti-saloon league of America; Rev. P. A. Baker, national superintendent of the league; Mrs. Florence S. Richard, president of the Ohio W. C. T. U.; State Rep. C. C. Crabbe, London, author of the Crabbe prohibition enforcement act and Supt. J. A. White.

ARGENTINA REFUSES TO PAY FINANCIAL
BILL TO THE LEAGUE

Disarmament Debated In Morning Session Of the Assembly.

Geneva, Dec. 14.—Argentina today refused to pay her financial assessment from the league of nations and the matter was referred to the league council.

Geneva, Dec. 14.—World disarmament struck more snags today. Leon Bourgeois, representing France, notified the league of nations that France could not comply with the disarmament committee's recommendation that nations should not exceed their present armament budgets.

"It would be impractical for France to do so until Germany fulfills the terms of the Versailles treaty," said M. Bourgeois.

The disarmament report pointed out further difficulties. It said that as the United States lacks laws to prevent private concerns from exporting arms, other countries would refuse to sign such an agreement because it would result in all such business going to the United States. Viscount Ishii head of the Japanese delegation had previously warned the league that Japan would not reduce her armaments so long as the United States continued to increase her land and sea forces.

Brown, near here, last August, were dismissed after being out nearly seven hours. The case will be retried as soon as possible.

"THE RAINBOW GIRL" WITH MISS SHOUP IN XENIA JANUARY 18

"The Rainbow Girl," in which Miss Katherine Shoup of Xenia is prima donna, will appear in this city at the Opera House on January 18, according to the announcement of The Standard Amusement Company. The piece was secured for a one night stand here through the fact that Miss Shoup is a Xenia girl. She is the daughter of Judge and Mrs. Marcus Shoup of East Main Street, and in her second season on the stage, has achieved flattering success, her performance in "The Rainbow Girl," being judged by critics the best of any leads the piece has had in four seasons.

"The Rainbow Girl" played at the Murphy Theater, Wilmington early in the season at which time Miss Shoup and her company were greeted by a large number of Xenia people who went to Wilmington to see the piece. The offering is the biggest to be staged here so far this season, and it is believed that the booking will be one of the most popular with Xenia patrons that the management could have arranged for.

THE REMARKABLE BUSINESS CAREER OF FRANK A. MUNSEY.

The Baltimore American and the Baltimore Star, of which General Felix Agnus was publisher, have been sold to Frank A. Munsey. On December 1 the Star was merged with the Baltimore Evening News and will lose its identity, while the American will be published under the direction of the Munsey forces on the Baltimore News.

The formal announcement of this big newspaper deal was made in the Baltimore American a few days ago, over the signature of General Agnus, in which he set forth the reasons that led up to the sale, and the great possibilities of success that confront Mr. Munsey in his latest newspaper acquisitions.

The Baltimore American is one of the oldest newspapers in the United States, dating back to 1773, when it started as the Maryland Journal. It played a conspicuous part in the American revolution and it was the first morning paper to publish the nation's anthem, "The Star Spangled Banner," written by Francis Scott Key, after the repulse of the English fleet off Fort Mchenry, September 12, 1814. It has been a Republican newspaper ever since the party was born.

There is no intimation but that the American will be continued with the same name. We hope so. There is something at least semi-pathetic in the name of an old newspaper. But if its prestige and usefulness had been superseded, it will have to go—as did the Xenia Torchlight—which had been for years the news beacon-light of many here, who were sorry to have it go, as it had to.

Mr. Munsey, in addition to the Baltimore News, owns the New York Herald, the New York Sun, the New York Telegram, the Paris Herald and other publications.

The business career of Mr. Munsey is proof of the good advice "if at first you don't succeed, try, try again." It seems only a few years since he had a terrific struggle to get his publication, "Munsey's Magazine," on its feet. We remember how he had to keep large draft accommodations "kiting" between him and a Chicago friend for months to meet his printers' pay rolls. But, with a stiff upper lip, he kept weathering the storm, and now we suppose he is a many times multi-millionaire.

We are not saying that all Mr. Munsey's money now has made him any happier than he was in those glorious days when he was struggling to keep his head above water, but only quote his success as another instance of this "land of possibilities."

The millionaires can eat no more and wear no more clothes than the rest of us, and he has to lie down and die like the rest of us, as did millionaire Dodge, a few days ago.

WHEN MRS. WILSON INVITED MRS. HARDING TO TEA.

Unlike some outgoing tenants Mrs. Wilson was perfectly willing to "show the house" to the incoming tenant, and even invited Mrs. Harding to afternoon tea for that purpose, pouring in the Red Room from the best silver service which is used only on state occasions. There was propriety in that as well as graciousness, for there can be no greater state occasion in the White House than that on which the wife of the President-elect inspects the establishment over which she is to preside.

Cabinets and senators, diplomats and dignitaries, the public itself were excluded and properly so, nor were any minutes made of the proceedings for the enlightenment of this or any subsequent generations. All other acts of the Wilson and Harding administrations will be open to history, but what Mrs. Wilson told Mrs. Harding about the White House as a place to live, its advantages and its drawbacks, and what opinions Mrs. Harding expressed after hearing the recital, will never be recorded in any archives, and that's one of the reasons why history frequently is so dull.

The common impression is among American housewives that the White House is the most desirable of all rental properties. The tenant gets a four-year lease with a good chance for a renewal for an equal period, and that's better than most house seekers can do these days short of buying a place. The landlord is a perfect jewel. He keeps the property up in first class shape, never even waiting to be asked for repairs. He repaints and repapers, inspects the plumbing and replaces the furnace at regular intervals whether there appears to be any particular necessity for it or not. He does that on system, so that nothing ever is really old about the place. He believes in keeping his tenants pleased, and that's one reason why this property is in so much demand.

But it is a safe guess that the White House has its little shortcomings, regarded as an all the year round habitation, just like other houses. Mrs. Wilson, of course, knows what they are and told Mrs. Harding about them. What they may be nobody ever can know without living there, which is to say the information will continue to be limited to a very few. Perhaps the linen closet room is not as spacious or well distributed as could be desired. Almost all houses, experience has shown, have at least one room—possibly the northwest room—that for some unaccountable reason won't heat. Maybe the White House is no exception.

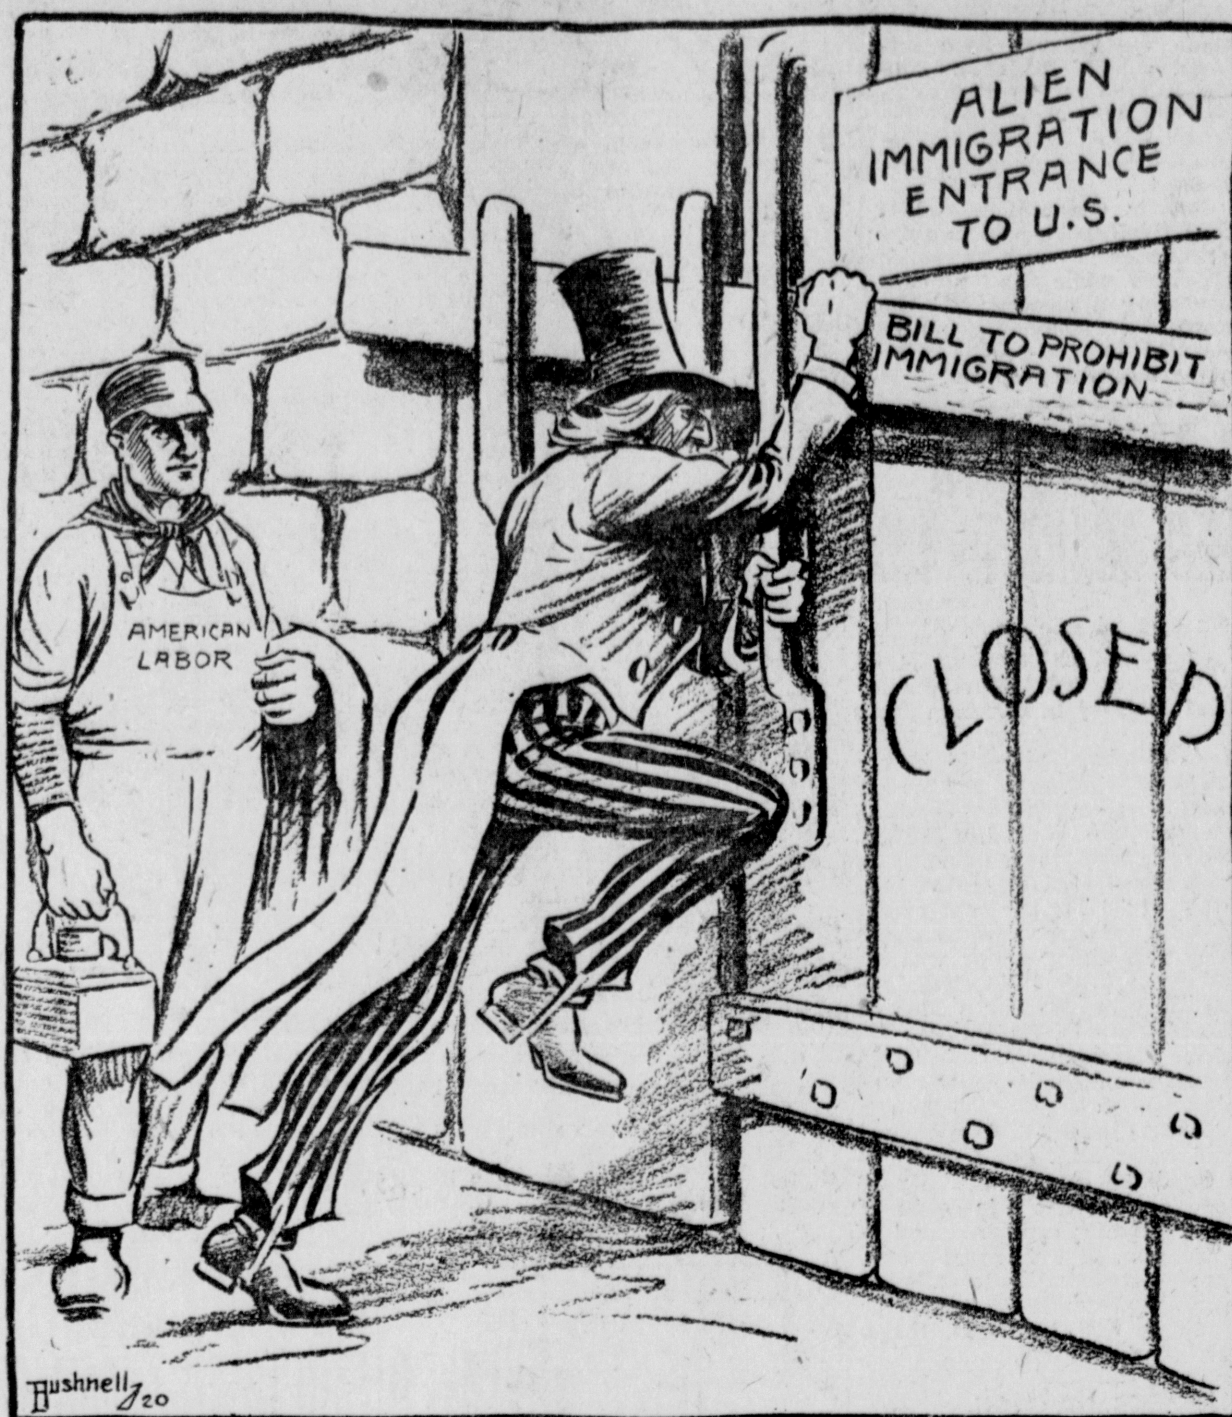

Whatever there is to know about the White House Mrs. Harding knew when tea was over. If the President-elect could get as quick and clear an insight into his department of administration, what a sure course would lie before him!—Kansas City Star.

RIPPLING RHYMES

DECEMBER.

December winds are blowing, and wearily I'm going down to the wailing place; the wintry clouds are flying, the old gray year is dying, it finishes its race. The old white year is failing and bitter winds are wailing its dirges as they pass; the fact they keep repeating amid the frenzied sleeting that years, like flesh, are grass. Each year, when a beginner, is sure to be a winner, that truth is understood; and all the bells are ringing and all the choirs are singing their prophecies of good. The new year seems a treasure, with promises of pleasure and happiness we've lost; but when with age it totters, we swat it with our swatters, and say it was a frost. And now in drab December but few of us remember how good the new year seemed; its guarantees were thrilling, it promised the fulfilling of all the dreams we dreamed. December always sees us so tired that naught will please us except a brand new year, wherein to try fresh measures for profits and for pleasures, to spend and profiteer. Old year, so sad and sickly, get out, and do it quickly—you've hung around too long! Old jaws are always creaking and musty maxims speaking; we like the young and strong!

PROTECTION

LEAVES FORTY TWO GRANDCHILDREN AS DEATH SUMMONS

Few, in passing from this earth, leave to mourn their loss, as large a family as did Mrs. Susan Bush, aged colored woman who died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Edward Steel, 818 East Third street, Sunday evening, after a long illness.

Mrs. Bush whose exact age is not known, was the mother of 15 children. She had 42 grand children, 25 great grand children and four great great grand children, a most unusual example of the extension of one single family. Her husband and 11 of her children preceded her in death.

During the majority of her life Mrs. Bush was a member of the Third Baptist church of this city, where the funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock, with Rev. A. M. Howe in charge. The surviving children are Mrs. Pattie Jackson, Mrs. Edward Steele, and Charles Bush all of this city and Leslie Coombs of Chicago, and one step-daughter, Mrs. Della Cunningham.

REVIVAL SERVICES COME TO A CLOSE

The revival services which have been in progress at the Friends Church for the past two weeks came to a close Sunday night. The session of the Sunday School in the morning was a remarkable one. After a short time in class work the school was addressed by Otis Pramer and then by the evangelist Rev. C. E. Haworth. On invitation of the latter about forty children and young people came forward to take a definite stand for salvation.

The Christian endeavor and both preaching services were attended by large audiences. The evangelist preached two strong sermons which were well received. Scores of people have been helped by these special meetings. Several will unite with the Church. Rev. Haworth made many warm friends during his two weeks of service in Xenia. He left for his home in Van Wert Sunday morning.

Lovers of basket ball missed a rare treat when they failed to see the game between the Xenia Athletics and the Dayton Alpha Omegas at the Rink Monday night.

The game was replete with thrills and excitement from the starting whistle to the closing whistle. The lightning passwork of the Xenia aggregation which was outwitted man for man completely baffled the Dayton warriors. Spectators were on their feet throughout the entire game.

At the close of the second period the score was 14-14 which caused the game to go five minutes over time to decide the winner. The final score was 22-17 in favor of The Xenia Athletics.

SOURCE OF ICEBERGS

The source of practically all the icebergs of the Arctic regions is Greenland. Owing to the northward current the bergs of this side are carried first to the north and it is only at about the seventy-fourth or seventy-fifth parallel of latitude that they begin to make their way westward to come down on the American side.

BEAUTY CHATS

SOME TOILET HINTS

Paris, November 9, 1920.

If I hoped that I would be able to find here a great many new lotions for the care of the skin and hair, I see now that I am sure to be disappointed. Paris is indeed the place where many of the best of these things are made, but most of the toilet lotions are extremely complicated and contain ingredients which we would find it impossible to purchase at home.

However, there are a few simple lotions which are widely sold here and which anyone at home can make for herself. Personally, I am inclined to think that these are quite as effective as the more expensive and more complicated varieties. I would like, for instance, to give the formula for a strawberry emulsion, which is splendid for an irritable, dry or scaly skin, and which is some what astringent and therefore good for the middle aged as well as the young woman:

Strawberry Emulsion
Strawberry juice, 1-2 tumbler full
Powdered borax, 1 generous pinch
Eau de cologne, 20 drops
Fresh milk, 1-4 glass.

This will be sticky if the strawberry juice is sweetened. In that case, I think if you add a little more cologne it will make it right, since most straw berry juice to be obtained now, comes in preserves. This makes a delicious looking emulsion which can be patted on the face after washing and allowed to dry in.

It is a very pretty color and it is supposed to lend a healthy tinge to a sallow skin. This emulsion was sold me in a perfectly lovely little bottle for a great deal of money. It will cost practically nothing to make at home.

Mother's Darling—I would not advise you to try anything more complicated in treating the nose than to massage and tap it with the fingertips to stimulate circulation and then rub it with ice. This will tend to overcome its flabbiness. Of course if you are too stout as you say you are, you will find it a great improvement if you will reduce. Frequently those lines around the cheek are nothing but the result of too much flesh on the cheeks.

Stenographer.—It is not true that if one is too fat in any special part of the body, the whole body must be reduced. You are troubled with the common ailment of all stenographers—fat that collects below the waist and around the hips. In your particular case, I wouldn't advise you to go without corsets, but would suggest instead that you wear hip-confiners to bind in the hips leaving the waist free. Take bending and stooping exercises to reduce the flesh around the waist. You are from your description of yourself, about 20 pounds overweight so of course if you reduce to normal the hips would not be so large.

WHY SUFFER SO?

Why suffer from a bad attack, from sharp, shooting twinges, headaches, dizziness and distressing urinary ills? Xenia people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Could you ask for stronger proof of merit?

Mrs. David Pohl, 751 W. Second St., Xenia, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills cured me of kidney trouble and I am glad to recommend them. I suffered with lameness in my back quite often, but the most trouble came from bladder disorder and I was annoyed by the way my kidneys acted. When I got up I felt tired and drowsy and it seemed as if I never could get enough rest. Doan's Kidney Pills, which I got at Donges' Drug Store, helped me right away and two boxes cured me entirely. It has been some time since and I haven't been bothered that way at all."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Pohl had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

NEW START MADE BY BALL LEAGUE

New York, Dec. 14.—The International league made a brand new start here today.

The club owners in their annual meeting held at the hotel Imperial Monday afternoon and night elected a new president—John Conway Toole—and chose a new name for their organization.

Hereafter the league will be known as the National Association of Professional Baseball clubs.

C. H. Knapp, a Baltimore attorney, was first elected president of the league and resigned shortly afterwards when the league refused as a whole to stand against the draft.

Thomas Hickey, president of the American Association, was then called into the meeting and his convincing arguments against the draft switched the International magnates to vote against it. Knapp was then asked to reconsider his resignation and Toole was elected president. Toole was to be notified and give decision on acceptance today.

The report of retiring President Fultz showed that the league prospered in 1920.

GREENE COUNTY FARM VALUES INCREASED SINCE 1910; NUMBER DECREASES 7.8 PER CT.

An increase in the value of land and buildings and in the amount of wheat, and the number of cattle and swine raised, is shown in the preliminary announcement of the Fourteenth Decennial Census for Greene County, received at the Chamber of Commerce from Sam L. Rogers, director of the Department of Commerce of the Bureau of Census.

The report gives interesting comparative figures of the year 1920 and 1910 when the last census was taken, although crop figures are taken from the year 1919 and 1909, as the last census was started Jan. 1. Figures of other countries in this section also received shows that Greene County fares well in comparison also.

The report shows that this year there are 2,373 farms in Greene County, as compared with 2,575 in 1910, a loss of 7.8 percent. Of these farms 2,305 are operated by white farmers and 68 by colored farmers, the figures ten years ago being 2,468 and 107. Owners and managers operate 1,386 of these farms compared with 1,571 in 1910 and 987 are occupied by tenants in comparison with 1,571 in 1910 and 987 are occupied by tenants in comparison with 1,004 ten years ago. The total acreage now is 247,759 of which 213,797 are improved acres, while in 1910 there were 258,798 acres under cultivation, 220,693 being improved. The value of the land and buildings this year is $41,773,415 while in 1910 it was $21,489,567 an increase of $20,283,848 or 94.4 percent.

Of the farms reported 2,326 have domestic animals this year, compared with 2,498 ten years ago. There are 10,524 horses, 547 mules, 21,472 cattle, 20,407 sheep and 83,288 swine, while ten years ago there were 12,093 horses, 573 mules, 19,724 cattle, 28,607 sheep and 79,825 swine.

During 1919, 69,076 acres of corn were put in and 3,371,656 bushels harvested. In 1909 the figures were 75,268 for acreage with a total harvest of 3,602,577 bushels. The report shows there were 47,582 acres of wheat cultivated last year and a crop of 909,215 bushels harvested, while in 1909 30,213 acres were planted and the bushels derived were but 355,304. There was falling off in oats, last year, only 9,162 acres being planted as compared with 12,139 in 1909, and 333,823 bushels harvested compared with 341,880 ten years ago. In 1919, 22,997 acres of hay were put in and 31,807 tons harvested while in 1909, 22,994 acres were planted and a crop of 31,571 tons derived. These figures show that even on less acreage, the intense cultivation and improved and modern methods used now, produced more in comparison than the results of a decade ago.

It is pointed out that the figures for domestic animals in 1910 are not very closely comparable with those for 1920 since the present census was taken in January before the breeding season had begun while the 1910 census was taken in April at about the middle of the breeding season, and includes many spring calves, colts and other animals.

In the six counties of Greene, Fayette, Clark, Montgomery, Clinton and Miami, Fayette county produced the most wheat during 1920, the crop amounting to 1,032,315, harvested from 52,000 acres. Clinton, which was second in production with 1,028,920, planted more acres of wheat than Fayette, the acreage being 52,394. Montgomery county is third in the sextette, planting 47,279 acres and producing 932,794 bushels of wheat, while Greene county planted 47,582 acres and produced 919,215 bushels. Miami county put in 36,923 acres of wheat for a total of 756,122 bushels and Clark county planted 36,518 acres and produced 720,200 bushels.

Is It Yours

THIS IS THE BIRTHDAY OF
HENRY IV, FRANCE
December 14, 1553

Henry IV, of France, known better as Henry of Navarre, was the life long friend of the great de Bethune whose biography appeared yesterday. Henry of Navarre was born in southern France, son of a Bourbon duke and the queen of Navarre—hence his name. He succeeded to his mother's small kingdom at her death and he married the sister of Charles IX of France. The death of two kings made him heir to the throne of France but he had to fight several wars to confirm his title.

Then he had to turn Catholic—a political wise move urged by his favorite, de Bethune. But he put through the Edict of Nantes which gave freedom to non-Catholics in his country, the Revocation of which, years later started the great Huguenot emigration.

Henry started canals, started the silk industry in France, reformed finances, cleared the national debt, and built up a reserve of many millions of dollars. He opened up commerce, encouraged agriculture, lived economically himself. He built the great gallery of the Louvre, the Pont Neuf, the Place Royale, the Hotel de Ville, and he finished the Tuileries—all places which the tourists to Paris see first and admire greatly.

He was the opposite of his favorite in many ways—he was affable, and he was physically brave to the point of recklessness. He was assassinated on the eve of a war with Germany. His son Louis became king in his place and one daughter married Charles I of England.

XENIA DEFEATED WASHINGTON TEN YEARS AGO IN SPORT

Ten years ago Saturday, Xenia High School defeated Washington C. H. High at basketball by score of 54-4 according to the feature column "Ten Years Ago Today" in the Washington C. H. Herald.

The bit of ancient history says: "Really the defeat should not, in all fairness be charged up to the local high school team because two of the most regular and most skillful players, Kyle and Blessing, were unable to go to Xenia."

AUTOMOBILE CLUB TO BE OUTGROWTH OF MEETING FRIDAY

Invitations are being sent out to automobile owners all over the county to the banquet of auto owners in the interests of the formation of a Greene County Automobile club, to be held at the Chamber of Commerce Friday evening.

Paul Ackerman, secretary of the Montgomery County Automobile Club and Howard C. Allen, secretary of the Fayette County Automobile Club, will be the principal speakers at the banquet. Mr. Allen and a number of other club members from Washington C. H. talked to local backers of the club movement here several weeks ago.

It is planned to arrange a preliminary organization at the meeting and banquet Friday and as many automobile owners as can possibly attend are invited to be present. Jacob Kany will furnish the banquet at 6:30 o'clock and auto owners who will attend are requested to send in their reservations to the Chamber of Commerce at once.

CEDARVILLE COLLEGE QUINTET TO MEET DAYTON FIVE FRIDAY

Cedarville College, having carefully won the first game on the home floor by defeating the Dayton Rivals last week, will meet the University of Dayton quintet, at Dayton Friday evening.

The dopesters will be out with their trowels at Friday night's contest for the result of the set-to will give an airing to the comparative strength in Cedarville and Antioch in Greene County Championship circles. Should Cedarville wallop the Saints at Dayton, their stock will go up faster than Pongit dollar multiplication, but if Cedarville is defeated by a close score, it will show that Antioch and Cedarville are on the same floor. Should the Dayton quintet stage a walkaway it will be hard to keep Antioch in Yellow Springs until the varsity squad up there tangles with Cedarville.

Coach "Rog" Collins over at Cedarville seems to have a promising lay-out of stars wearing the abbreviated trousers this season, and there are those who say that Cedarville will give the Dayton five a huskier battle than did Antioch Saturday night.

"FINANCE BOARD COULD AID THE FARMERS"—MYERS

Eugene Myers, Jr.

Invited to speak before the joint agricultural committees of the house and senate now working toward enacting legislation to relieve the farmers, Eugene Myers, Jr., urged congress to place the war finance corporation in operation again. He was formerly manager of the finance corporation. He pointed out to the committee that the corporation is intact and in full possession of all the powers it has ever possessed, including the power to insure its own bonds, as it did in April, 1919, to the extent of $200,000,000.

PHONOGRAPHS AND RECORDS

Comparison Sells The Brunswick —Not Sales Talk

IT isn't expert opinion that brings you enjoyment of your phonograph—it's your opinion, and the family's.

It isn't because "someone who knows" says it's the best that you all gather around it in the evening, in rapt enjoyment, with the pleasure that comes when you feel that you've got the best your money can buy. It's only because you're dead sure of it, yourself.

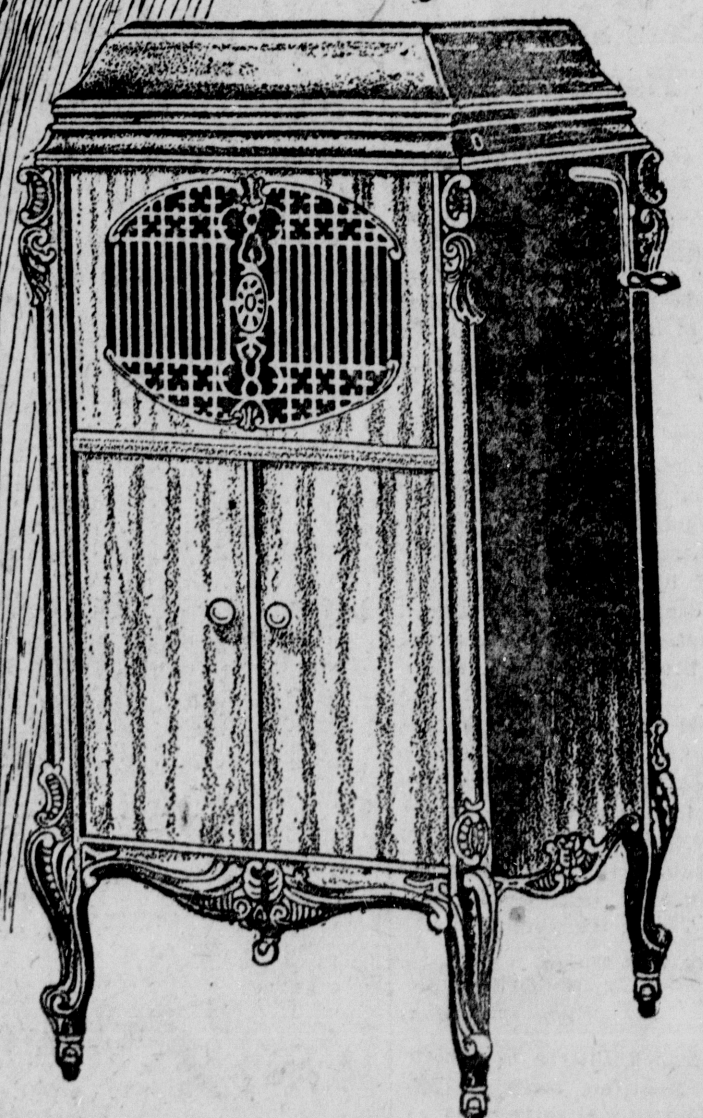

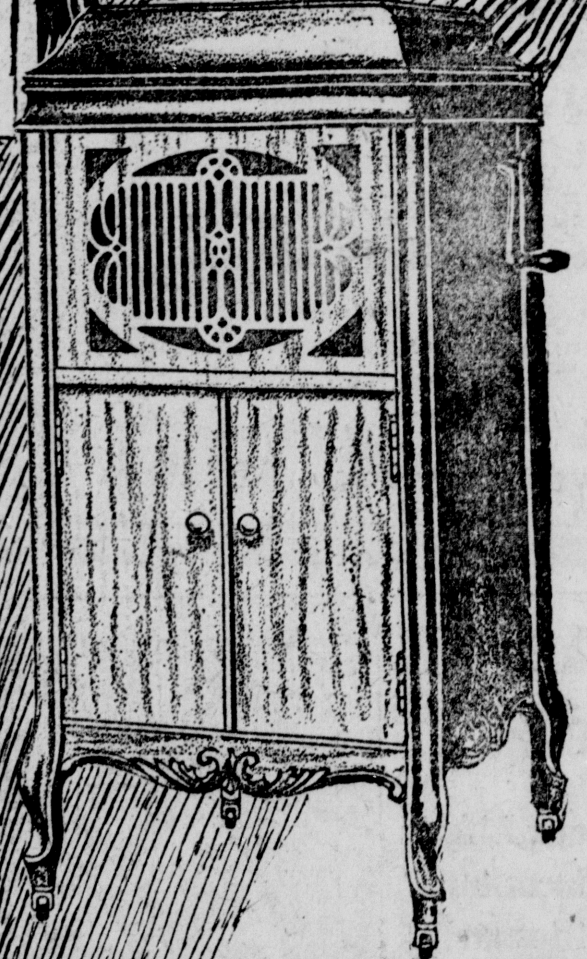

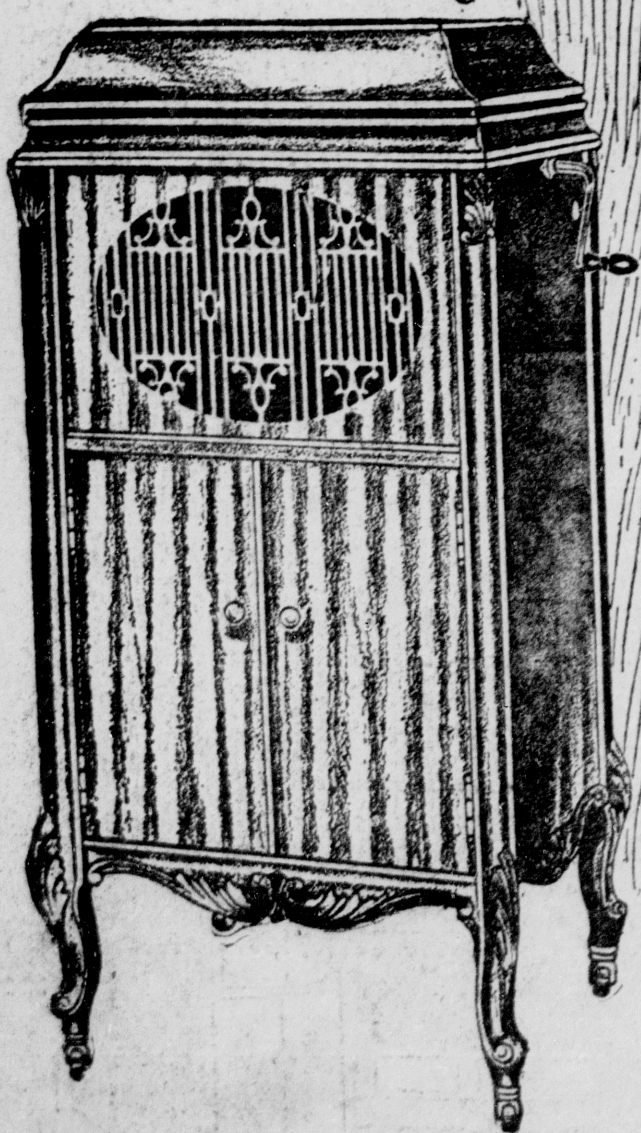

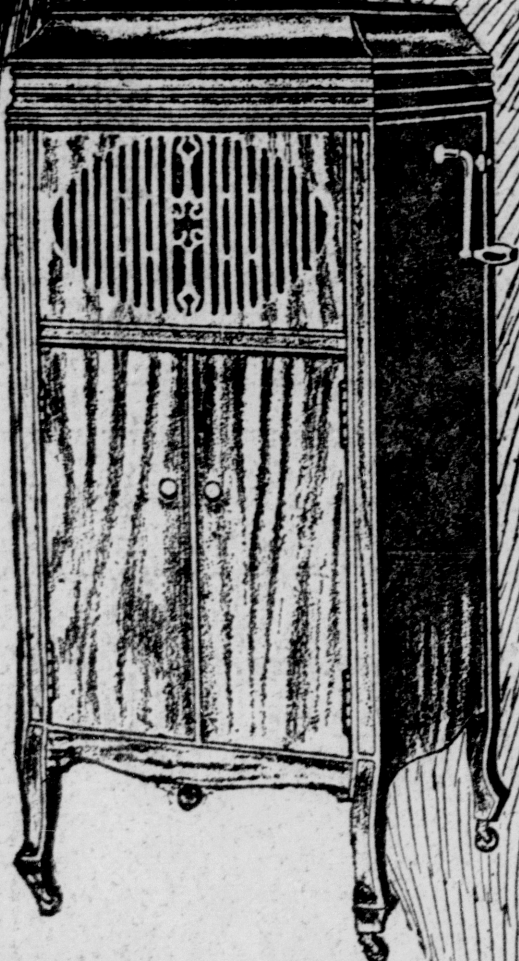

That's the way we feel about selling Brunswicks. We recognize The Brunswick as a leader among fine phonographs—a leader in artistry and build—a leader in purity of tone production.

But if, after exact and close comparison, you don't believe that The Brunswick is the finest, then it isn't the best for you, and we won't urge you to buy it. The Brunswick sells itself. Or rather, comparison sells it.

Before you choose your phonograph, come and hear The Brunswick. Then make comparisons. We leave the decision to you.

BLUE AND WHITE TO MEET BELLBROOK

Central High versus Bellbrook in basketball is the way the menu cards read for Tuesday night's entertainment at the Rink.

The game will be the second of the season for Coach "Shorty" Confer's talent, the opening event having resulted in a decisive victory over Caesar Creek High at the Rink last Friday evening.

Caesar Creek High in its turn, has defeated Bellbrook high by almost as large a score, and the dope therefore, reads against the Sugar Creek visitors. Nevertheless, the Bellbrook quintet is probably the most versatile aggregation playing in Greene County. For the fifth consecutive year, Bellbrook defeated Beaver High at Bellbrook last week in an over time contest. Last year when Beaver had a corner on the basketball talent of the famous Brill brothers and won the county championship, the team was defeated but once, and that by Bellbrook.

Fans say, and they know that Coach Confer has one of the best looking court quintets that has ever worn the blue and white.

YELLOW SPRINGS

The Community Club Social and Spelling bee held Friday evening in the opera house was attended by about seventy people. With the exception of a very few all took part in the spelling and had an all round good time. A fine of five cents was charged against those who didn't either wear their clothes backward or come in backward. Almost two dollars was collected in fines. Doughnuts and cider were sold to the amount of several dollars which will be put into the treasury toward another entertainment.

Burglars broke into the Oster Garage Friday evening and made their escape with twenty-eight dollars taken from the cash register drawer. They entered the garage through a window that had been left unfastened. Mr. Oster proprietor of the garage was in Cincinnati on business when the robbery occurred.

The Library Association met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Herman Coe. Mrs. D. D. Jones of Xenia had charge of the program.

The missionary society of the Presbyterian church will meet Thursday afternoon with Mrs. A. S. Rahn.

The Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Church will meet Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. S. Sheldon. Miss Ella Bailey will be in charge of the meeting.

Prof. William Dawson acting President of Antioch college delivered an address Saturday at the Clark County teachers meeting in Springfield.

The seventh and eighth grades of the Public school will give a Christmas entertainment Friday evening in the Opera House. The proceeds will be used to purchase a dictionary for the school.

The choir of the Presbyterian church and the Methodist choir are preparing some good Christmas music to be rendered at the two Churches. The Methodists will have their cantata Sunday evening and the Presbyterians will have their Christmas music Tuesday evening, Dec. 21st.

19 EGGS A DAY FROM 23 HENS, IN WINTER

Mr. Duni's Hens Increased Every Day. Plan is Easily Tried.

We have 23 chickens and hadn't had an egg all winter. In five days after feeding Don Sung, we got 4 to 5 eggs a day; in three weeks we were getting 10 to 12 a day; in five weeks we got 15 eggs a day. —John Duni, Box 102, Cherry Valley, Pa.

Mr. Duni started giving Don Sung in January, in zero weather. He now keeps his hens busy in winter when hens usually loaf. A trial costs nothing.

Here's our offer: Give your hens Don Sung and watch results for one month. If you don't find that it pays for itself and pays you a good profit besides, simply tell us and your money will be cheerfully refunded.

Don Sung (Chinese for egg-laying) is a scientific tonic and conditioner. It is easily given in the feed. Improves the hen's health and makes her stronger and more active. It tones up the egg-laying organs, and gets the eggs, no matter how cold or wet the weather.

Don Sung can be obtained promptly from your druggist or poultry remedy dealer, or send $1.00 (includes war tax) for a pack, age by mail prepaid. Burrell-Dugger Co., 314 Columbia Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.

Famous Old Recipe for Cough Syrup

Easily and cheaply made at home, but it beats them all for quick results.

Thousands of housewives have found that they can save two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, by using the well-known old recipe for making cough syrup at home. It is simple and cheap but it has no equal for prompt results. It takes right hold of a cough and gives immediate relief, usually stopping an ordinary cough in 24 hours or less.

Get 2½ ounces of Pinex from any druggist, pour it into a pint bottle and add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. If you prefer, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, keeps perfectly, and lasts a family a long time.

It's truly astonishing how quickly it acts, penetrating through every air passage of the throat and lungs—loosens and raises the phlegm, soothes and heals the membranes, and gradually but surely the annoying throat tickle and dreaded cough disappear entirely. Nothing better for bronchitis, spasmodic croup, hoarseness or bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known the world over for its healing effect on the membranes. Avoid disappointment by asking your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

WOMAN ELECTED SHERIFF DECLARES HER SEX OPPOSED HER AT THE POLLS

Benlah, Mich., Dec. 14—"Politics won't be any 'nicer,' now that women are in. You may bank on that," declares Mrs. Estelle Gates, Sheriff-elect of Benzie County, Michigan.

Matronly, about fifty years old, she gives the impression that she knows whereof she speaks.

Mrs. Gates charges that the campaign against her in Benzie County was conspicuous chiefly by the trickery employed by the opposition. "And I'm right here to tell you the women were to blame for it," she adds. "Many who labor under the delusion that women are going to support women in politics are going to be disillusioned."

family. Mrs. D. K. Wolfe of Denver, Colorado was the guest of Miss Anza Johnson, Saturday. Mrs. Wolfe is the daughter of D. A. Long who was president of Antioch College twenty five years ago. President Long and family live in Raleigh, N. C.

Mrs. S. F. Weston and son Burns will leave the 21st for Emporium, Pa., where they will spend the holiday season with Mr. and Mrs. Will Higgins. Dr. Weston who is teaching in New Brunswick, N. J., will join them Christmas. Burns will return to Antioch college the first of the year. Mrs. Weston will return East with Dr. Weston for the winter.

Torrence Garlough spent the week end in Oxford with his brother Willis who is attending college at Miami University.

Ernest Huston of Columbus spent Sunday with his parents Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Huston.

"The women didn't support me in my election, and I never knew before I ran for the office that I had an enemy. Besides bucking me, they thought up more subtle methods of attack than any man ever could, and, believe me, I'll trust to the support of men every time."

Mrs. Gates received a majority of ninety-four votes, but she credits none of her votes to the women of her community.

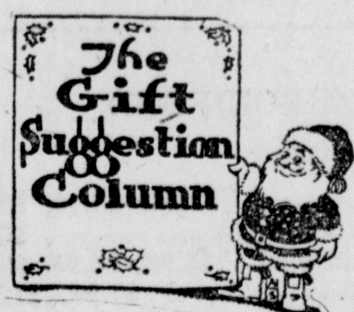

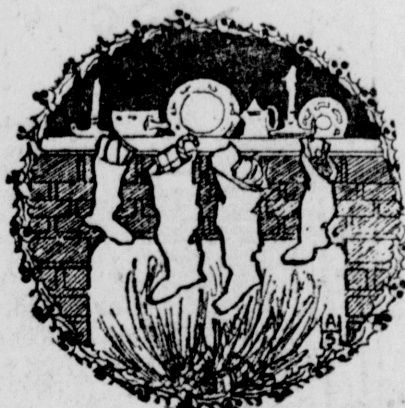

NO REASON FOR IT

When Xenia Citizens Show a Way

There can be no reasons why any reader of this who suffers the tortures of an aching back, the annoyance of urinary disorders, the pains and dangers of kidney ills will fail to heed the words of a neighbor who has found relief. Read what a Xenia citizen says:

J. M. Stokesbury, 122 N. Columbus St., says: "When I leaned over to pick up anything and went to straighten up again, a pain caught me in my back and I wasn't able to straighten up for some time. I finally got so bad off, I was laid up for quite awhile and I ached all over. I got Doan's Kidney Pills from Sayre's & Hemphills Drug store and after I had used four boxes I was entirely cured. It has been several years since and I haven't had any return of the trouble."

Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy, get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Stokesbury had. Posters: Milburn Co., Mrs. Buffalo, N. Y.

HAD TERRIBLE COUGH IN BED 3 YEARS

In 3 weeks she was out on the streets again, feeling fine.

"In 1916, I had a gripe, followed by pneumonia which left me with a severe cough. I coughed constantly from morning till night and then would wake up in the night and cough and choke. I lost flesh and my appetite was very poor. I doctored with a specialist for over a year, and had several other doctors, but got worse instead of better. Last winter I was bed-ridden, had chills and fever and got so weak I could not sit up in bed 5 minutes without fainting."

"In February, 1919, I started on Milks Emulsion. I was then in bed, but in 3 weeks, I was able to be up and on the streets. Just think of it! For 3 years I have been a physical wreck, in bed most of the time, and Milks Emulsion had brought me out in wonderful shape. My friends all tell me how well I'm looking, for they didn't expect me to be living today."

"—Miss M. Russell, 1003 Opelousas St., Algiers, La."

In thousands of just such cases, Milks Emulsion has brought the same wonderful relief and improvement. It costs nothing to try.

Milks Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, promotes appetite and puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. It helps build up flesh and strength, and is a powerful aid in resisting and repairing the effects of wasting diseases. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are speedily relieved.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milks Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 75c and $1.50 per bottle. The Milks Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold by druggists everywhere.

RECIPES FOR A DAY

Stuffed Eggplant—Cut the eggplant crosswise without peeling, parboil fifteen minutes, hollow out the center of each half, combining the removed portions with leftover ground meat, season with onion. Stuff, cover with bread crumbs and grated cheese and bake for thirty-five minutes.

Savory Sandwiches—Combine peanut butter with chili sauce and mayonnaise. Spread on thin slices of bread, pressing crisp leaves of lettuce between.

Pear Salad—Halve ripe pears, hollow out the centers, roll lightly in powdered sugar, then in finely crushed shredded wheat crumbs or ground nuts. Fill the centers with diced marshmallows, arrange on crisp hearts of lettuce and serve with any good mayonnaise. When this salad is served you may omit the dessert entirely, since it satisfactorily takes its place.

WAYS TO USE APPLES

Glaze Baked Apples—Wash and core, large, red, firm apples. Peel them about one-third of the way down from the stem end; then place them in a casserole which has a cover. Make a syrup, using one cup of sugar to one and one-half cups of water for six apples, and boil six minutes. Pour syrup over the apples, cover them and place in a medium hot oven. Baste the apples occasionally with the syrup until they are tender, but still whole and perfect.

Remove the cover, put a teaspoon of sugar in the center of each apple, and sprinkle sugar over the peeled surface. Put under the flame in the broiler or at the top of a very hot oven, until the sugar has melted and the peeled section is a light shade of brown. Basting once or twice during this process makes them look as if they had been varnished with clear melted sugar.

If the apples are to be used as the main breakfast or luncheon dish, instead of cooking with sugar, the cavities may be stuffed with sausage and baked, in the usual manner, or they may be made into an omelet.

Apple Omelet—Eight large apples, one cup sugar, one teaspoon cinnamon, sprinkling of nutmeg, three eggs, one tablespoon cornstarch, two tablespoons milk.

Stew the apples until soft, then mash with them the sugar, cinnamon and nutmeg, and set aside to cool. When cold add the beaten eggs and the cornstarch, which has been dissolved in the milk. Mix thoroughly, then pour in a buttered baking dish and bake slowly for twenty minutes. Serve at once.

Eggless Apple Sauce Cake—One cup of unsweetened apple sauce, one-half cup of melted shortening, one cup of sugar, two cups of flour, one cup of seeded and chopped raisins, one teaspoon of soda, one-quarter teaspoon of salt, one teaspoon of cinnamon, one-half teaspoon of cloves, one-quarter teaspoon of nutmeg.

Nan Tells Dick of the Concert and Tea.

Chapter 38.
Dick came in shortly with Junior. "Hello Nan! Beat you to it tonight? I thought it would do Junior good to take him out. Mrs. Dooly said she hadn't had time."

"It was nice of you, Dick," I replied as I kissed him. "I did leave a good deal for her to do."

"Did you have a nice time?" "Wonderful! And Dick, Mildred is getting up a party to go down to Greenwich Village some next week. She wants you and me and Clara and Jim to join them. I told her we would."

"All right," But I am a little leary of Mildred's parties. They usually mean extravagance we can't afford. Del's or some smart hotel which is beyond us."

"No wonder she thinks we can go— you used to." A flash of jealousy passed over me.

"I told you that was when I was a gay and lonely bachelor. Now that I have you and Junior, those are past performances, aren't they, kiddo?" He swung Junior up until baby screamed with glee.

During dinner I told him of the concert and the tea. He had heard of Aime Lawton, and was rather amused at my description.

"A lot of it is done for effect," he observed, his mouth full of hot apple pie.

"Oh, I don't know! Mildred said some of the artists and writers were poor."

"I guess a good many of them are! But if they can paint or write, I imagine the poverty is their own fault. They wait for inspiration, calling themselves geniuses instead of getting down and plugging away like people do in other professions and like the successful ones in their own."

"But they have to have inspiration to write, don't they?"

"Natural aptitude perhaps. But I imagine the man who said 'Genius was a third inspiration,' was more than half right."

"You are so awfully practical, Dick," I returned laughing.

"The first thing I know you will be bobbing your hair and wearing smocks."

"Don't worry about that!" I thought of the wonderful gowns at Madame Felice's, how becoming they were, and how I would like to be able to wear her gowns all the time. Smocks, nonsense! Men had no idea of clothes anyway—not many of them.

After dinner Clara and Jim came up and we played bridge. I hustled Clara into the bedroom and told her to be very careful not to mention my dress, that Dick knew nothing about it.

"How did you avoid him?" "He was out with Junior, you know. I was all undressed when he came in."

"You lucky thing!" "Was I lucky to be able to deceive Dick so easily? At the time I thought with Clara, that I was. Later, I knew that I was very unlucky. Had Dick known of the little beginnings, perhaps neither he nor I would have experienced the heartbreaking years that followed."

"Come on, you two! What are you discussing? Clothes! I'll bet!" Jim called to us, and we went out to the living room to find the table ready, and the boys impatiently waiting to deal.

"We had a very pleasant evening. I made a rabbit when we had finished playing. After they left Dick said: 'I enjoy such an evening. Nan. It doesn't leave a bad taste in my mouth and worries in my brain, like an evening when we spend more than we should.'"

"I enjoy them too, but I like other things occasionally. It gets pretty poky for a woman who is at home all day, if she never goes anywhere at night."

"I know, dear, and some day we'll have opera seats for the season and all the frills, if I don't die too soon." Dick always managed to joke when I got serious. Tomorrow—Nan Urges Dick to Take a Chance.

ther seeks to enjoin the collection of an assessment of $1,734.56 on two lots of 66 feet and one of 30 feet, totalling 162 feet on West Main street, and an assessment of $845.86 on 79 feet on West Main street, which plaintiff claims is not the property of the company, being a part of Shawnee creek. An injunction is also asked against an assessment of $1,800 on 3:57 acres or 290 feet on Dayton avenue.

The plaintiff alleges that the assessments on the lots on the south side of West Market street, the north side of West Main street and on Dayton avenue are in excess of the special benefits conferred and of 33 1-3 per cent of the actual value. The petition alleges that the assessments on the north side of West Market street are not in excess of 33 1-3 percent of the property's value and the plaintiff is willing to pay them and not enjoin, but that the illegal assessments cannot be distinguished from the others. A temporary restraining order was allowed by Judge Kyle. Shoup and Smith are the attorneys for the plaintiff company.
